WINNERS SPOTLIGHT!

Linda J. McGregor of Port Lavaca was in tears and in awe of her prize while at the Texas Lottery Claim Center in Victoria where she was completing the paperwork to collect a Cadillac® Hybrid Escalade™ she won with the purchase of a Cadillac Escalade Cash ticket.

Upon seeing the prize on the ticket, McGregor said she was so overcome with emotion that she couldn't drive.

"I called my friend Bobby to come and get me and then drive me to the claim center because I was so flabbergasted I just couldn't do it," she said. "I also asked him to look at the ticket and to tell me if what it said was real. He said, 'Girl, you just won this Cadillac,' so off we went."

"I'm going to a family reunion in Mississippi next month," she said. "I'm going over there in my new car, which I hope to have by then."

"I feel so blessed by this and so grateful," McGregor said. "I want everybody to know I won. The fact is that you've got to play to win. If you don't, well, you'll never know."

The Quick Stop Food Store located at 102 E. Austin St., in Port Lavaca sold the winning ticket.

On a hot summer day in July, Jerry D. Kanady stopped at the Parkway Shell located at 402 East Main in Olney at the urgent request of his wife, Nancy, who wanted a soda.

While there, Mr. Kanady decided to buy three Weekly Bonus tickets for himself and two other tickets for his wife. Mr. Kanady said, "I won $10 on the first ticket, and nothing on the other two, but I thought to myself, 'what the heck,' so I bought a few more."

While he scratched the second round of Weekly Bonus tickets, Kanady saw the number 13 come up.

"It's our lucky number," Mrs. Kanady said. "When he showed me the number and the prize that was attached to it, all I could think was, 'Thank you, God.' My husband, however, was so surprised that he uttered some colorful words at seeing that we had just won $500 per week for 20 years."

The prize money, Mrs. Kanady says, will allow them to make the move to Olney to be near their daughter, son-in-law and grandchild.

"We don't owe anybody anything now, so we're going to buy a house," she said. "We're not going to do anything crazy. It's just going to be, you know, like 'normal life.'"

Maybe it was a sign or maybe it was just some dropped money, but for Edwina "Sissie" West of San Antonio, the $20 bill that fell out of her purse was a message that pointed the way to a $1 million prize in the $500,000,000 Blockbuster scratch-off game.

"I was at the H-E-B on my lunch hour picking up a few things to take back to the office, and on my way out while I was fumbling for the keys in my purse, a $20 bill fell out in front of the lottery ticket machine, and right away, I wondered to myself why that happened," West said. "I took it as a sign. If that bill had not fallen out, I would have kept right on going."

She bought the ticket from the Instant Ticket Vending Machine (ITVM) and went back to her office and scratched the ticket some time later.

"I saw that million-dollar prize and I didn't know if I should scream, holler or cry," West said. "Then I had to change my glasses to get another look at that prize, just to make sure."
